SUNSET CLUB TO GIVE FIRST PRODUCTION

"Arms and the Man" To Be Played Monday and Tuesday At Lawrence Chapel

"Arms and the Man," the first Sunset production to be given this year, will be presented Monday and Tuesday evening at the Lawrence Memorial chapel under the direction of F. Theodore Cloak. The curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

An experienced cast, made up exclusively of Sunset players, effective lighting effects, and unusually appropriate scenery promise to make the production exceptionally fine.

Raina Petkoff, a romantic young Bulgarian girl who is trying to reach out aesthetically beyond the rest of the people of her country and who always is the romantic heroine before her friends and relatives, is played by Alicemay Whittier, '34.

Lucille Ozanne, '33, takes the part of Catherine Petkoff, an imperiously energetic, middle-aged woman, who, although she belongs to a very wealthy family and is determined to be a Viennese lady, is more suggestive of a peasant woman.

Fighting Soldier

The role of Louka, the little servant girl who is extremely aware of her prettiness and personal charm, is acted by Dorothy Howell, '33.

Bluntschli, portrayed by Eric Volkert, '35, is a Swiss, "Fighting," he says, "merely as a professional soldier."

Carson Harwood, '33, takes the part of Nicola, the middle-aged servant of cool temperament and low but keen intelligence, who has the complacency of the servant who values himself on his rank in servility and the imperturbability of the accurate calculator who has no illusions.

Petkoff, a cheerful, excitable, insignificant, unpolished man of about 50, who is naturally indolent except where his income and his importance in local society are at stake, is acted by Roland Beyer, '34.

Mountain Chieftain

Harris Will Speak At Forum Meeting and in Convocation

Paul Harris, Jr., a member of the national council for the prevention of war, will be brought to Lawrence college by the Geneva committee as the speaker at a special convocation Tuesday morning and at a special campus forum meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Harris's main interest lies in the organization of a constructive youth movement for world recovery.

Mr. Harris was a member of the faculty at Geneva this summer, the midwest Y. W. C. A. conference. He was also present at the student convention at Buffalo, N. Y., which several Lawrence college students attended last winter. Mr. Harris accompanied several students from the Geneva conference to the Democratic convention at Chicago this summer, aiding them in their plan for gaining a hearing in the insertion of the youth peace plank in the party platform.

Mr. Harris has a definite plan for the part youth can play in the movement for world recovery. He has been touring the country, presenting his plan in colleges of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Wisconsin.

Last Lecture On Evolution Given

Final Talk of Series Given By Mullenix Over Radio Wednesday

"Evolution and Progress," the concluding lecture in a series on "The Present Status of the Doctrine of Evolution," by Dr. R. C. Mullenix was broadcasted over WHBY Wednesday.

Dr. Mullenix stated in his lecture, "The two things that are preeminently essential as a guarantee of the continuity of human progress are science and religion, and the greater of these is religion; not so much an increase in knowledge as an increased wisdom in the use of our knowledge; not so much an advance in the control of the forces of Nature as an advance in self-control; not so much a revival of learning as a renaissance of religion."

Matter of Daily Living

Quoting the definitions of religion given by Micah, James, and Jesus, he said: "In terms of these definitions, religion is a matter of daily living in accord with the teachings of Jesus, a matter of conduct in our relations with our fellow men, a practiced belief in the reality of moral and spiritual values, a recognition of the principle of oughtness in human life, a loyalty to one's sense of rightness, and a turning away from one's sense of wrongness."

Turning to present day problems, he said, "From the mouths of conservatives as well as radicals, capitalists as well as socialists, comes the warning that if the advances of the last 100 years are to be held, war must be outlawed; the succession of booms and depressions must be ended; the advantages accruing from machinery, specialization, and the division of labor must accrue to the whole and not a favored minority, and the pain of grinding, crushing poverty must become a thing of the past."

Members of French Club Entertained at Hamar

Old and new members of the French club were entertained at a meeting at Hamar house Wednesday night. Following a short business meeting, bridge was played, during which time only French was spoken.

Lawrence fraternities now have 82 pledges. Of this number, one is a junior who transferred from another college, 21 are sophomores, including those who were pledged but not initiated last year and those pledged this year, and the remaining 60 are members of the class of '36.

Although rushing was officially over nearly eight weeks ago, a large number have been pledged during the last month. However, the total number is still short of the number of pledges last year at this time.

Delta Iota now has the largest group of pledges, having 19 in all, 9 of whom are sophomores. The pledges are George Blanchard, Robert Durbrow, Lloyd Delart, Stanley Guth, Byron Foster, Burdette Eaton, Robert Mueller, Wilson Schier, John Schroeder, Willard Shibley, Bert Slocum, Paul McKahn, Arnold Toekley, Norman Traas, Edward Roebert, Arthur Roemer, George Walters, John Vogel, and Ted Kramer.

The Theta Phi has one junior and two sophomores in their list of 16 which includes: William Davis, Frank Dean, Gerard Hecker, Clifford Kenyon, Keith Larson, Henry Lay, Gustave Lindeman, Seth Melhinch, James Meyer, John Moyle, John Plumb, John Rapprager, Robert Reid, James Sensesbrenner, Arnold Schuetter, and Richard Tisdale.

100 Dollars Added To Student Senate Scholarship Fund

An additional $100 for the proposed $2,000 scholarship was appropriated by the Student senate at its meeting last Tuesday evening. Until the $2,000 goal is reached, the available money will be loaned to seniors and graduate boys.

When the $2,000 has been accumulated, the money will be set aside as an endowment. The income of this amount will be granted to upper classmen as scholarships. Meanwhile the money available will be lent to seniors and graduate students for one year periods.

The plan was inaugurated last year by the Student senate under the presidency of John Strange. The Senate contributed $125 with the understanding that each succeeding senate will set aside $100 toward the $2,000 fund.

This money is being loaned on the recommendation of the administration loan committee. The committee is composed of the president and assistant dean of the college, and the president and treasurer of the Student Senate. Loans are to be repaid Sept. 1 after graduation.

Fraternities Are Subject Of Talk

Phi Beta Kappa Compared With Social Groups by Prof. Clippinger

In his talk in chapel Wednesday following the announcements of the elections of Phi Beta Kappa, Professor Frank Clippinger, professor of English, compared the honorary fraternity to the social fraternities as they did exist and as they exist today.

"There is one main difference between the two," said Prof. Clippinger. "Phi Beta Kappa has scholarship for its principal ideal, while the social fraternities have drifted from the original ideal and now find themselves faced with many critical problems."

Lawrence More Fortunate

"The fraternity situation at Lawrence is reasonably healthy and certainly better than in most other colleges," he continued. "But these are critical days in the fraternity world, and unless readjustments and reorganization are effected, these problems will soon come to our campus."

Referring to the early history of Phi Beta Kappa, Mr. Clippinger said that it is the oldest Greek letter organization. It was founded at William and Mary college, Williamsburg, Va., Dec. 5, 1776. Chapters were then established at Harvard, Yale, and at Union, New York. All the characteristics which the social fraternities now have had their origin in Phi Beta Kappa.

Early Meetings

The early meetings of the group consisted of programs of orations, reading of essays, and informal debates. The Harvard chapter established an excellency in its careful selection of new members. It was the custom to announce the election of members at a public (Continued on page 2)

Griffiths To Lecture Before Woman's Club

Dr. J. H. Griffiths, professor of psychology, will give a series of lectures before the Appleton Woman's club shortly after Christmas. Dr. Griffiths' lectures will follow the series now being given by Miss Dorothy Bethurum.

INFORMED OF NEW POSITION BY SUZZALLO

Appointee Is Only College President West of Alleghenies On Trustee Board

Dr. Henry M. Wriston was notified late Wednesday that he had been appointed a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Word came from Henry Suzzallo, president of the board.

The Carnegie Foundation is one of the two largest educational foundations in the United States. The advancement of teaching is its major responsibility, and it has pursued this purpose for a quarter of a century, undertaking services in many fields as the educational situation revealed opportunities for fundamental and strategic assistance.

The General Education board is the other large foundation.

Included in the membership of the board are some of America's outstanding educators and financiers. Dr. Wriston is at present the only college president west of the Alleghenies to hold such appointment. He is receiving congratulations from friends and admirers throughout the country.

Indication of Esteem

Sen. William Hutton, president of the Lawrence board of trustees, said yesterday, "Dr. Wriston's appointment is a further striking indication of the high esteem in which he is held as an educator. During the last few years his educational projects at Lawrence have won national recognition. These include founding of the Institute of Paper Chemistry, the unusually successful alumni reading service, the picture rental service and the adoption of the tutorial system of study for juniors and seniors."

"The honor conferred upon him by the Carnegie board confirms unmistakably the high regard in which he has for years been held by those who were privileged to know him best," Sen. Hutton commented.

College Benefits

Sen. Hutton further stated, "Regular association with the trustees of the Carnegie Foundation definitely ensures (Continued on page 2)"

Alumni Give To Reading Service

Two Thousand Asked To Contribute to Fund; Enables Existence During 1933

Two thousand Lawrence alumni are being called upon this week to contribute to the Alumni Reading Service fund. It is hoped that an amount of money will be secured which will enable the service to be financed during 1933.

The Reading Service was begun three years ago, and was financed during the first year by the Carnegie foundation, the directors of which were interested in it as an experiment in continued education contact and adult education. It was felt by the directors, however, that the service should be self-supporting after the first year, and for the last two years the project has been maintained by means of voluntary alumni contributions. Approximately 50 books are sent to (Continued on page 4)

English club sets Thanksgiving day as the deadline for contributions to "Ships", an all college publication. Copy should be given to Miss Olga Achtenhagen or Jane Cosmann, and may be either poetry or prose.

Five Elected To Phi Beta Kappa

Bohl, Heller, Mehne, Schmidt, and Wiley Are Chosen, Clippinger Announces

Announcement of the election of five Lawrence seniors to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity, was made by Prof. Frank Clippinger, president of the Lawrence chapter, in convocation Wednesday.

The students honored are:
Annette Heller Marjorie Mehne
Lillian Bohl Marshall Wiley
Orvis Schmidt

Six students were elected to Phi Beta Kappa at the fall elections of last year. They are John Strange, Eleanor Chapman, Charles Culmer, Andrew Engstrom, Alicia Kumpula, and Harold Sperka. John Frampton, Julia Ladwig, Irma Malzow, Meredith Nelson, Virginia Schumacher, and Edwin West were elected to membership last spring.

NOTICE!

On account of the Thanksgiving holiday, there will be, as in previous years, only one issue of the Lawrentian next week. That issue will appear Wednesday.

Fitting Songs Found For Many Greek Fraternities, Sororities By Observer

By The Observer

The Observer has been snooping about, delving into fraternity and sorority songs, and some very interesting things did come to light.

The Kappa Alpha Theta gals have been known to yodel: "If You Want to Meet a Beta, Just Come Along With Me", and that bit of melody is very appropriate—so they tell me.

The Betas, on the other hand, have great glee chanting loudly and long: "I Think That I Shall Never See A Poem Lovely as a SPE". And then there are the Sig Eps, a few of the more enthusiastic of whom have been known to sing a melody called: "In Padookus, Tennessee", which is a really inspiring little composition. The Alpha Deltas crash through with a "Drink 'Er Down" melody when the spirits dictate, and the Theta Phi boys have been known to chime in on the same chorus.

The K. D. sentiment is about equally divided between "Onward, Christian Soldiers" and the "Maine Stein Song" so choose your faction and join in the singing. The D. I.'s have lots of songs, many of which we only dare whistle at the present time. There are others, as you may imagine, but look 'em up yourself, and then have a gala evening singing them all sometime.

A REAL HONOR

Once again recognition has deservedly been given to President Wriston. The announcement of his appointment as a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation is an announcement that carries with it many implications. Primarily, of course, it is proof of his outstanding ability in the field of education. It ranks him as one of the foremost exponents of the progressive principles of modern administrative policies. He takes his place with Lowell of Harvard, Butler of Columbia, Lamont of J. P. Morgan Co., and many other national figures.

Through Dr. Wriston's appointment, Lawrence college will undoubtedly derive further attention from educational authorities the country over. Being the only college west of the Alleghenies to have as its president a member of the Carnegie Foundation's Board of Trustees, Lawrence necessarily will occupy a unique position. The tremendous significance of this position will be found in its power to share with every student the benefits that are to be forthcoming. A student's degree will have a greater value, his position will be more widely recognized, and he will have the satisfaction of graduating from the outstanding college in the middle West.

Finally, the honor has been bestowed on Dr. Wriston partly because of the recent policies of the college. Many of the ideas, such as the Alumni reading service, the establishment of the Institute of Paper Chemistry, and the rental picture service, that have been put into effect have received nation wide publicity. From these policies everyone receives positive returns.

Dr. Wriston's most recent appointment will go down as one of the significant steps in the history of Lawrence's rise to educational leadership.

the susceptible imagination of an untamed mountain chieftain, whose remarkable distinction is of a characteristically civilized type.

The background of the play is found in the history of the Serb-Bulgar war, which began in 1885 when the king of Serbia, hoping to enlarge the boundaries of his country, wantonly invaded Bulgaria.

The ensuing war furnished Europe with a great surprise when the Bulgarians, welded into a single mass by their patriotism and inspired with a do or die spirit by the Czar's withdrawal of the Russian officers who had held all the posts above the rank of captain in the Bulgarian army, defeated the Serbians in the three day battle of Slivniz.

New Stage Equipment

New and improved stage equipment will facilitate the production of the play. Two new light tormentors, shields to hide the electrical equipment, will be used for the first time in this production. They were purchased as the first unit in a new false proscenium for the stage.

An attempt has been made to create the atmosphere of each act by the painting of new settings. The first, the boudoir of Raina, is done in a romantic style in a simplified realistic manner. The second is the bright, sparkling garden of the Petkoff house, and the third, the library of the Petkoff house, reflects the atmosphere of a Bulgarian home of 1885.

meeting as a climax to the commencement exercises. This brought additional respect and honor to the organization.

The final transition to its present condition came when the group gave up secrecy and social activities and adhered only to the policy of promoting scholarship.

Professor Clippinger outlined the development of social fraternities. He divided it into two periods. "The first, beginning in 1825 with the organization of Kappa Alpha, and lasting to the end of the century was the period of the resemblance of fraternities to Phi Beta Kappa. In the second period, having as its terminal date 1930, the fraternities became the most influential factor in college life."

Early fraternities were few and had small memberships. The members were chosen carefully and quietly, and long pledge periods did not exist. It was not until the beginning of the twentieth century that the fraternity house came into being.

In closing, Professor Clippinger said that it is possible that fraternities may disappear within a decade unless they follow the policies of Phi Beta Kappa and adopt as their object encouraging real scholarship.

ands of world businesses have been forced to shut down; does that mean that the banking system is condemned to die, and that the existing business order is on the verge of complete oblivion? We wonder.

Bring Students Back

When there is no particular sentimental attraction to a college, as a college, it is the fraternity and sorority influence more than any one factor which brings students back to school year after year. We have always been told by professors and administrators that knowledge gotten from books is a very small part of a college education, and we believe that fraternities and sororities give to college men and women that much larger side of their development through contacts, ties, and fraternal unity.

In our humble opinion, Lawrence college would find itself hard pressed for students next year were the fraternity system to be done away with. Now, we know that there is a certain mid-western institution of learning which has no fraternities, and is apparently thriving. There are many things which account for the influx of students there; one is the big outlay of money for scholarships, and another (which is very important) lies in the fundamental relation between the administration and the students, and between the students and the administration.

Lawrence has not had this relationship for years, and very little is being done to establish such a relationship. Until it is established, Lawrence college is in absolute need of fraternities and sororities.

Nine are at present pledges of Phi Kappa Tau. They are: Vernon Beckman, Dan Conway, Otto Hauelsen, Nelson Johnson, Alanson Kimball, Karl Mess, David Mewaldt, Robert Rydell, and Gordon Faber.

BUSINESS MANAGER SPEAKS

Hear Ye! Hear Ye!

Order, order, order in the court!

Case No. 1: The people vs. the business manager.

Certain mournful coeds from Kaukauna, Menasha, and even Appleton, who have the dubious fortune to seek refuge from time to time, at the good old homestead instead of coming to the dorm (the old snobs!) are complaining. To listen to said and aforementioned people, who, rumor has it, receive their Lawrentians in the mail, it would seem that they have committed libel by stating that the business manager has been dozing in a state of coma.

This particular business manager wishes to rise up to every inch of his righteous indignation to announce that he never has been in a coma . . . at least it hasn't been called to his attention. This gentleman maintains that this year as never before we got a paper what is a paper, and it is going to be a heckuvalot better as time goes by.

Therefore: whereby, and whereas, the aforesaid and mentioned individual, states that all criticisms of said paper's mailing system shall be lightly placed upon said manager's desk not later than Thanksgiving day. These missives shall designate which definite issues have been withheld from the individuals allegedly discriminated against.

They are gonna get the paper (even those in town), the same day it comes out, and if they don't, the parties of the first part are to notify said gentleman of the second part so that he may step on the toes of the parties of the third part who are responsible for the hangover service. After all these complaints have been received and filed in the proper waste paper baskets, this ruling of the court shall go into effect: That every subscriber shall receive every issue of the paper on the day of its publication. And the paper will be worth a lot more than the mere five pfennings paid for it. If said and aforementioned business manager hears any rumors of dissatisfaction without telling him so he can correct them, there are going to be some heads lying around.

Don't forget folks, you can't fool the business manager, 'cause he is working hand in hand with the Observer, and you know how the Observer gets around.

Therefore the court dismisses said accusation of comatic conditions and calls for requested evidence of poor service not later than Thanksgiving day.

Case dismissed—call case number two.

BETAS, DELTA SIGS LEAD IN VOLLEYBALL

Psi Chi Omega, Delta Iota Follow With a Win and Defeat For Each

STANDINGS

	W	L	PCT.
Delta Sigma Tau	2	0	1.000
Beta Sigma Phi	2	0	1.000
Psi Chi Omega	1	1	.500
Delta Iota	1	1	.500
Theta Phi	0	1	.000
Sigma Phi Epsilon	0	1	.000
Phi Kappa Tau	0	2	.000

The interfraternity volleyball race has resolved itself into a race between the Betas and Delta Sigs. These two teams are scheduled to meet next Tuesday afternoon in the game that will probably determine the championship of the hard courts. The Betas have defeated the Theta Phi and Sig Eps, while the Delta Sigs have scalped the D. I.'s and Psi Chis.

In the opening games Tuesday afternoon Delta Sigma Tau, the defending champion vanquished Delta Iota in a very unimpressive manner by scores of 15-5, 15-5. The Delta Sigs featured DeCook, Smith, Vollmer, C. Retterer, A. Retterer, and Ziegler. The D. I.'s started Durbrow, Ansorge, Fuchs, Schier, Roemer, and Guth; Tockley, High, and Warzink were used as substitutes in the second game of the match.

Betas Win

The Betas easily defeated the Theta Phi in straight sets of 15-6 and 15-7. Dodge, Reeve, Aderhold, Keitel, Kellogg, and Glassner comprised the starting lineup for the Betas, while Wilder, Graef, and Gage were substituted in the second game. Theta Phi used Olen, Davis, Rapprager, Volkert, Schomish, and Heckert. In the third game of the afternoon the Psi Chis smashed through the Phi Taus with the scores 15-5 and 15-0. The Psi Chis started Ballard, Simonds, Hessler, Otto, Spanagel, and Roessler; Fiend and Verhulst were substituted in the second game. Little, Rudefbusch, Brown, Hershleb, Rydell, and Beckman played for the Phi Taus.

Psi Chis Strong

Sigma Phi Epsilon drew a bye and was not scheduled to play. Of the six teams that played in Tuesday's matches, the Psi Chis appeared to be the strongest aggregation; the Betas won their games with little difficulty, but their play was ragged at times. The men had trouble setting the ball to the spikers; Aderhold and Dodge showed up

Sophomore Girls Take First Place in Hockey

The sophomore class has been awarded first place in the women's interclass hockey tournament. Second place goes to the freshmen; third, to the seniors; and last, to the juniors.

The freshman 2-1 victory over the seniors Wednesday concluded the tournament. Tuesday's game resulted in a 4-4 tie between the freshmen and juniors. The sophomores defeated the juniors, 3-1, on Monday.

Warners Theatre To Present Trophy To "Smiley" Feind

Merlin Feind, captain of the Lawrence college football team will be presented with a silver plated trophy, a replica of a regulation size football, in recognition of his position as captain of the 1932 football squad by Warner Brothers Appleton Theatre Monday, Nov. 28.

The presentation of this cup is in accord with the spirit of Warner Brothers in that they have always endeavored to cooperate with student bodies of American colleges.

The trophy, which is now being displayed at Graces Apparel shop, 104 N. Oneida St., will be the permanent possession of Captain Feind, and will be given him in the presence of the football team.

During the month of November Warner Brothers theatres all over the country will by similar presentations at all leading American colleges and universities give like trophies. Along with the presentation will be a five unit vaudeville featuring an entire Lawrence college student cast and orchestra.

well as spikers.

In the Beta-Sig Ep game yesterday afternoon, the Sig Eps jumped into the lead in the first game and won, 8-15; the Betas came back strong and took the second game by a 15 to 13 count. Both teams settled down in the third game and the serve changed hands several times before either team was able to break a 4 to 4 tie. The Sig Eps weakened and the Beta team took three points; they held a slight lead until the Sig Eps pulled the score up to 13-14, in favor of the Betas. The serve rotated for several men before the Beta gang finally spiked a shot through the strong Sig Ep defense. This match was the best of the meet to date. Both teams are very powerful and are sure to finish in the first division.

Five Lettermen On Cage Squad

Rafoth, Karsten, Foote, Goch-nauer, Felts, with Frosh Material, Comprises Squad

After seeing a potential championship squad blasted by ineligibility and failure of certain men to return to school, Coach A. C. Denney is attempting to build his 1932-33 Viking basketball team around a nucleus of relatively inexperienced men.

With the graduation of Captain Bert Hall and Herb Vanderbloemen, the failure of Captain-elect Willis Haase to return to school, and the scholastic difficulties of Bill Colbert, Ben Rafoth, veteran center, is the only regular of last year to appear in suit. Four other lettermen, Pete Karsten and Bill Foote, forwards, Mike Gochnauer, a guard, and Sid Felts, a center, also return to the squad this year along with a flock of talented frosh material.

No indication has yet been given as to the men who will fill the vacancies in the line-up. Coach Denney has confined all practices thus far to drilling in fundamentals and in acquainting the squad with the new rules.

The most important new rule states that when the defensive team takes possession of the ball, it must carry it past the center of the floor within ten seconds. The penalty for its violation forfeiture of the ball to be put into play from out of bounds. This rule will speed up the game considerably, and Lawrence fans may expect to see a Viking team with a fast break, as in the old days of Kotal, Heideman, and Briese. Another rule limits the time which the pivot man may hold the ball with his back to the basket to three seconds.

IN THE SENATE

More chapel programs featuring student talent and selected student artists is the purpose of a recently appointed committee of the Student senate. Alice Bradford, '33, is chairman of the committee.

Plans are being made to include skits produced by the Sunset players, discussions sponsored by the Campus forum, and perhaps student singing. Two speakers, one an Englishman, and the other a native Indian, will discuss the British-Indian problem on Dec. 7 and Dec. 9 respectively.

An additional $100 for loans was made available to members of the student body by a motion passed by the Student senate at its meeting last Tuesday night.

A Christmas party on the evening of Dec. 16 at the new gym, featuring Rudge Keefe's 12 piece band, with free bus transportation to and from the gym, and free cloak room service, all for one dollar per couple is a tentative plan of the Student senate.

Jane Cossmann, '33, is general chairman of the dance committee.

At a special meeting held yesterday at 1 p.m., the Senate voted to give $12.50 to the Athletic Board in order to defray the expenses of a banquet for the football squad. It was pointed out at the meeting that although various organizations have sponsored the banquet in the past, they would be unable to do so this year. The Senate, consequently, decided that it should aid in giving the banquet.

Reading Service Receives Contributions of Alumni

Lawrence alumni each week through the facilities of the service. Nearly 50 per cent of the alumni are enrolled in the service, and requests for books during a single month range from 80 up to 125 for the most popular copies.

Reviews of four or five new books are published in each issue of the Alumnus. These are followed by slips with one sentence reviews sent to each alumnus who patronizes the service. The alumnus then designates the book which he would prefer to read, and if there is an available copy, the book is sent to him by the alumni office. The book may be retained for three weeks at no charge other than the return postage.

The service originally purchases four or five copies of each new book, and then buys additional copies as demand for them merits. It is sometimes necessary to purchase as many as 20 copies of a single book. When copies are no longer in demand, or are worn, they are sold at second hand prices, which is one of the present means of financing the service.

The experiment, which has now become very popular, has been acclaimed by many leading educational authorities, and is recognized as a significant step in the field of adult education. It is because of this recognized worth that every effort is being made to secure adequate financial support for the service during the coming year.

Delta Sigs Win

The Delta Sigs met the Psi Chis. In the first game the Delta Sigs easily won, but in the second game the Psi Chis jumped to a 10 to 3 lead before DeCock and Vollmer were able to spike a few points through a somewhat demoralized defense. The Kimball street boys gathered together some more points and won the match when they took the second game, 11-15. The Delta Sigs showed great offensive strength against a team that was not playing on a par with its first performance.

In the final game of the afternoon the D. I.'s defeated a stubborn Phi Tau team. The D. I.'s took an early lead in the first game and the Phi Taus were unable to garner enough points to win, but in the second game the Phi Taus spurred into a quick lead. The D. I.'s rallied and were able to win after they had overcome a four point lead. The scores of the game were, 15-6 and 15-12.

UNUSUAL VALUES!

At The Shops

In the hope of making the Lawrentian as up-to-the-minute and metropolitan as possible, we present this new feature to our readers. Cool, crisp, fall weather calls for snappy suggestions concerning the latest features shown by Appleton shops, and we wish to call the attention of our readers to them.

NAN AND DAN.

Come on, you Lawrentians, be sociable! Now don't be dumb, you know how. Well, if we must tell you how, when and where to get a rip-snortin' good time, here it is. ALMA'S is featuring our worthy fellowman, Pat Smith, and his accordion every Friday night. You know Pat and his technique with that "squeeze-box". So for a hilarious time we'll be seen' you-all tonite at Alma's. Don't forget, it's a date!

now and place your order.

Huge fur collars and floppy hats simply don't agree. The collar usually dominates and pushes the poor hat to a lofty position. To be chic and comfortable just try one of the new rabbit hair, tigheers, or wool crepe turbans obtainable at THE VOGUE HAT SHOP. These and the ritzy metal hats have the unbelievable price tags of $1.98 and up.

FISCHER'S JEWELRY STORE is now having its advance Christmas showing. Because of drawing such huge crowds Saturday they desire to show their appreciation by further offering these values unsurpassed. Their prices will meet all competition, quality considered. Many excellent, inexpensive gifts can be found at Fischer's, and a small deposit will hold any article until Christmas.

The whirl of parties so popular at holiday time calls for unique suggestions. GMEINER'S offer a wide variety of candy specials. Bonbons in tints to match or harmonize with your table decorations, candies in nearly any desired shape or flavor, and dainty spun sugar nests (featured by only Gmeiner's) have loads to do with making your party a success.

Wrap yourself in one of the warm, woolly sport jackets found at POND'S SPORT SHOP, and then snicker up your nice, spiffy sleeve at the cruel wintry blasts. There is a variety of colors and styles from which to choose. Women's wool jackets sell for $5.85, and the suede leather styles for men at $5.95. The official Lawrence Viking jacket is another Pond feature.

Even a perfect partner, a gorgeous formal, and dreamy music lose half their charm if your feet are not daintily and appropriately shod. Imagine trying to glide to the strains of "Love Me Tonite" when your feet rebelliously cry "I Wanna Go Home!" With so much depending on these fast approaching formals, you fair Lawrentians had better rush down to DAME'S BOOT SHOP and select a pair of the special pumps or sandals to match that new gown of yours. Moire and faille styles come in white and black; the white, you know, may be tinted to harmonize with all shades and for no extra charge. Very popular also is the moire sandal with silver trim. With any pair of these your feet will signify their willingness to dance "All Thru' the Nite."

Want to improve your maidenly beauty, girls? Of course you do, don't we all? It's a problem no longer if you go to the CONWAY BEAUTY SHOP. The first step is to submit to the skillful haircutting, trimming, or thinning by "Figgie" Doyle. His models offer you suggestions for any type of haircut. The next step is to treat yourself to one of Mayme Knapstein's lovely permanents. The modish Ringlet End-curl for only $2.50 is especially popular. Another favorite is the Push-up Wave at the popular price of $5.00. Truly, they please the most exacting.

The good old maxim declaring that experience is the best teacher is "quite quite" even today in this modern age which shows an obvious contempt for the ancient sayings. To elucidate—

HARVEY'S CANDY SHOPPE has as a regular feature, assorted homemade chocolates for only 65c a pound, and the insignificant sum of 35c will purchase a variety of pan candies. When an experience so pleasant awaits you why deny yourself the pleasure any longer?

Frame that "steady" of yours, co-eds! Now don't get the wrong impression, what I really mean is—KOLETZKE'S PICTURE FRAMING SHOP has so many attractive and artistic frames suitable to any picture that none of you can afford not to have one. You have no idea how they flatter a picture—not insinuating of course, but just the same it's worth your while to stop at Koletzke's.
